I trust this message finds you well. As we celebrate Black History Month, the Please Don't Die Black Men (PDDBM) Fashion Show stands as a beacon of inspiration and cultural significance. Scheduled for Saturday, February 8, 2025, at The Clark County Fairgrounds, this event aims to spotlight the profound contributions of African Americans to the U.S. fashion industry since the 1860s.

PDDBM, as a nonprofit organization, relies on the generosity of individuals like you to bring our mission to life. Your sponsorship not only supports a worthy cause but directly impacts the lives of middle and high school students by covering their admission fees, providing enriching experiences, and fostering educational opportunities.

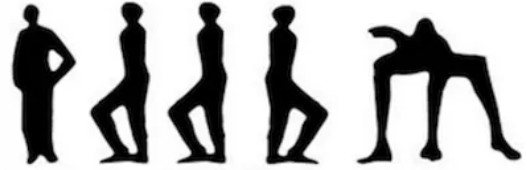

This year's event includes captivating features such as the West African Tribal Hairstyle Exhibit, a Silent Auction, a Mini African American Fashion Designer Museum, and an Authentic West African Plated Meal. By aligning with PDDBM, you align with our commitment to charitable, cultural, scientific, equitable, and educational initiatives, working towards ensuring equity for African Americans through access to resources, quality education, and STEAM programs.

We invite you to consider our sponsorship packages (attached) to forge a lasting partnership that goes beyond a one-time contribution. Your support will not only make a meaningful impact but also position your brand as a champion of equity and education. Should you require further information or wish to discuss tailored opportunities, please contact us at pddbmuplift@gmail.com or (360) 991-2405.

Thank you for considering this exclusive opportunity to join us in uplifting and inspiring our community during Black History Month.

Sincerely,

Imara Muraty
