

Please Don't Die Black Men (PDDDBM) will be hosting a Black History Month Fashion Show on February 10, 2024 from 10am to 3pm at the Clark County Fairgrounds located at 17402 NE Delfel Rd, Ridgefield, WA 98642.

The main purpose of this event is to bring awareness and educational exposure to African Americans who have contributed significantly to the development of the fashion industry in the United States since the 1860s.

Tickets are available on the event website: 2024BHMFashionShow.eventbrite.com.

Here are a few compelling reasons why you can't afford to miss our event:

Uplifting and Inspiring African American/Black Youth: Companies and individuals can also provide sponsorship to African-American/Black youth to attend this fashion show with our Sponsorship Form. These middle and high schoolers can learn from and network with other fashion professionals. This will give young African-American/Black youth access to resources and opportunities that will help them develop the skills they need to pursue a career in the fashion industry. By providing more opportunities for African American/Black youth to get involved in the fashion industry, we can help to create more diversity and representation in the fashion industry.

Honoring Cultural Heritage: Our fashion show is not just about runway glamour; it's a heartfelt tribute to the heritage, resilience, and achievements of the African-American/Black community. Through each showcased outfit and designer ensemble, we pay homage to the cultural milestones that have shaped history. Experience the pride and joy of seeing your ancestry celebrated in a visually stunning and empowering way.

Food and Ambiance for The Soul and Culture: Our Black History Month Fashion Show will feature free food for all of our attendees in order to give people the chance to indulge in tasty and flavorful foods from West Africa as part of the celebration of Black History Month. A DJ will keep the atmosphere lively and fun by playing a selection of hand-picked music that will exclude vulgarity and also have an uplifting and inspiring effect on the crowd.

Black History Fashion Education: As you embark on this journey when you attend this event, you will find portraits and biographies of African-American/Black fashion industry luminaries whose contributions and continued contributions date back as far as the early 1860s, providing a fascinating insight into the history of the fashion industry.
